

Nina Weis
Curriculum Vitae
June 2020

Nina Weis (Danish)

Born 02. January 1961

Medical Education:

- 2020: Professor Infectious Diseases, University of Copenhagen, Faculty of Health and Medical Sciences, Department of Clinical Medicine
- 2015-2019: Research Associate Professor, University of Copenhagen
- 2004-2014: Associate Professor, University of Copenhagen
- 2003: Specialist in Infectious Diseases
- 2001: Specialist in Internal Medicine
- 1992: PhD Degree, University of Copenhagen, Denmark
- 1987: MD, University of Copenhagen, Denmark.

Postgraduate Positions:

- Since 2012-: Senior Physician, Copenhagen University Hospital, Hvidovre, Department of Infectious Diseases; 2014 - 2019 Education Chief Physician
- From 1993: Employment at 10 different clinical departments at University of Copenhagen, Denmark.
- 1991-1993: G. P. and Medical Escort doctor, Beijing, China.
- 1987-1991: Ph. D. Study: The DNA-fingerprinting pattern and multilocus enzyme electrophoresis profile as epidemiological markers of Neisseria Meningitidis. Usefulness in the assessment of outbreaks of meningococcal disease. University of Copenhagen, Faculty of Medicine, Denmark. Ph.D. defense 12. August 1992.

Publications: 131 publications in peer reviewed journals, 2 chapters in a textbook. 15 first authorships, 47 corresponding last authorships and 69 co-authorships. H-Index 27 and 2,971 citations (29.11.2018; via Scopus). ORCID ID: 0000-0002-3133-2724

Scientific activities: 2019-: The Copenhagen Test and Treat Hepatitis C in A Mobile Clinic Study. 2017- : Initiator of Danish HIV Birth Cohort. All Women Living With HIV in Denmark, becoming pregnant and their children since year 2000, prospectively, ongoing registration. 2015-: Shared Addiction Care Copenhagen. 2013-2017: The Danish Innovation Foundation; as part of the project "Development of new Fibrosismarkers in Hepatitis C". 2007-: DANVIR. National register study of all patients investigated for hepatitis B and C in Denmark since 1997. Member of the Steering Committee. 2002-: Initiator and Head of DANHEP; The Danish Database for Hepatitis B and C since establishment, a nationwide clinical database for adult patients followed at hospital departments in Denmark with chronic viral hepatitis with prospectively, ongoing registration.

Scientific Supervision: 4 Post Docs (AW 2019, CSS 2019, EM 2018, JP 2017). 7 PhD Students Main supervisor: 5 PhD students (Bollerup S 2018, Hallager S 2017, Wessman M 2017, Pedersen J 2015, Andersen ES 2012), academic supervisor: 2 PhD students (Sjølund CS 2018, Clausen LN 2014) on different topics of viral hepatitis and HIV. 6 Scholar Stipends (and > 20 Master (OSVAL II) Thesis Students. 1 Cand. Scient. San. (Albrechtsen M 2017).

Scientific Evaluation: Head of Committee of 5 PhD defenses (Rønsholdt F 2015, Chiduo MG 2013, Helleberg M 2013, Audelin AM 2012, Engsig F 2012) and member of 5 PhD Evaluation Committees (Mehdiyar 2019, Kileng 2019, Carlsson-Laloo 2019, Barfod T 2005, Jensen ES 2003).

Management experience: 2016-: Member of "The Flying Squad", team of 2-4 persons, visiting all 60 departments of internal medicine and surgery, affiliated Department of Clinical Medicine, Faculty of Health and Medical Science, University of Copenhagen. 2011-2015: Board member of The Danish Society of Infectious Diseases. 2002-2004: Board member The Danish Society of Internal Medicine.

National Guidelines: 2009-: Head of National Guidelines Committee for Chronic Viral Hepatitis B and C.

Funding (last 5 years): Novo Nordisk Foundation. Tandem grant w. Professor J Bukh "Translational studies of host immune responses and virus evolution during antiviral treatment of patients with chronic hepatitis B and C infections"(DKK 15,000,000). 2018 Manufacturer Vilhelm Pedersen and Wife's Foundation for remuneration of Ph.D. stud. Signe Bollerup (DKK 1,500,000).